Teacher update

- Kindergarten orientation
 - Kindergarten rocks books passed out
 - 56 Kindergarteners registered at the moment
- Bracelets have been going well, rainbow bracelets sold out
- Class placement is beginning at the end of the month
- Questions circulating around 3rd grade testing expectations
 - Ms. Hurley – expectation is that they take their time and to not finish the test in one sitting

Treasurer Update

- Teacher requests are coming in.
 - Will be direct shipped to the school
- $20,000 still needs to be spent down
 - Does not include the funds for the new logo shirts

April teacher wish list requests

- Wish lists have been approved, and will be ordered
- Still waiting on a link for some items
- Braining Camp request from Ms. Hinton will be approved
 - Refer to IT for any licensing agreements
 - Ms. Hinton to follow up with Ms. Duffy regarding the program to get more details to obtain agreement

4th Grade Picnic June 2nd

- Themes have been sent in – thank you!
- Food trucks for this year – calling around for more
 - Need to be inspected by the health department, if they have not been already
- ParentSquare sent out for volunteers for end of the year activities

Enrichment ideas for the spring

- Author visit - with the concert and Mr. Kemp's last day – not the best day to have the visit
 - Potentially next year
 - Ms. Dalton will connect with Author to plan for the visit next year
 - Possibly to pair with Riverbend Book Store in Glastonbury to purchase book

Officer Positions

- Anyone who is interested in positions for the PTO office next year, please inquire.
- One new vacant position available next year

Teacher appreciation week

- Breakfast pizza wasn't cooked! Italian Gourmet will be supplying new one on Thursday

Meeting adjourned 7:32pm

Respectfully Submitted,

Susan Hilerio
